

Arlene Janzen

ARLENE JANZEN
Chartered accountant
White City, Saskatchewan

Arlene has been with Communities in Bloom involved as a provincial judge for Saskatchewan from 2003 to 2005 and served as a national judge since 2006. Arlene has been actively involved in the White City Parks and Recreation board since 1996 and also served a term as a councilor. She is also a member of two local theatre troupes, and is on the board of directors for the Southeast Connection for Culture, Recreation and Sports. She has served on a variety of boards including the Saskatchewan Communities Initiatives Fund and the Saskatchewan Association of Rehabilitation Centers. Arlene has done financial volunteer work with Mennonite Central Committee since 1983 and this work has taken her to various destinations throughout the world. Along with her husband, Darhl, they try to maintain their half acre yard which includes hardy roses and a variety of plants testing the boundaries of zone 2b. Arlene is on the constant lookout for new perennials. To sustain these habits she has her own income tax/accounting practice. Arlene continues to search ways to be more environmentally friendly both on an individual and on a community scale.

Arlene was raised on a farm in central Saskatchewan, contributing to her love and commitment to rural values, community volunteerism and rural beautification.
