

2011 National Judge

Bob Lewis
Retired Park Director
Ottawa, Ontario

Bob has recently retired from the National Capital Commission in Ottawa where he was the Director for Capital Urban Parks & Green spaces.

Bob oversaw the management of more than 160 hectares of urban parks including urban forests, naturalized areas, parkways, the Parliament Hill grounds, the Rideau Canal Skateway (the longest skating rink in the world), public outdoor recreational facilities, and 16 acres of flower beds including more than 500,000 tulips and 200,000 annuals.

Bob has been associated with Communities in Bloom for over twelve years, a National Judge for eight years and is also a member of the Board of Directors of Communities in Bloom.

Bob likes to explore Canada and the ever increasing communities in bloom.
